Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Nanette Dailey has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving which makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Nanette joined the South Dakota Department of Transportation (DOT) in May 1971, and will retire on May 8, 2009, after 38 years of service; and,

Whereas, The importance of Nanette's job was to assist in managing state-owned railroad property to protect the state's investment by negotiating agreements for the best utilization of the state's assets for the use of any state-owned railroad property or facility, including leasing of excess property, leasing of industrial sidings, fencing, and weed control contracts, excess property sales, coordinating the South Dakota Railroad Board and Railroad Authority meetings, and preparing loan agreements; and,

Whereas, Nanette is a member of the South Dakota State Employees Organization, Ss. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, St. Michael's Band, and the Pierre/Ft. Pierre Humane Society; and,

Whereas, Nanette enjoys crocheting, quilting, and gardening, and is a certified Master Gardener, belongs to the Prairie Potters Master Gardeners, South Central Master Gardeners, River Cities Garden Club, and the Pierre Area Community Garden Club; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to honor this outstanding South Dakotan for a well deserved retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 8, 2009, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and colleagues as they recognize and congratulate her on a long and successful career.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
